DATA PROTECTION: Consent to process learner data

Bexhill College collects information about all our staff and student for various administrative, academic and health and safety reasons. The Data Protection Act 1988 requires the College to gain your consent before we can do this. As a College we cannot operate effectively without processing information about you. If you do not give such consent, the College will be unable to offer you a place and may withdraw any offer already made.

Privacy Statement: How we use your personal information

The personal information you provide is passed to the Education Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) to meet legal requirements and to create a unique learner number (ULN).

The information you provide may be shared with other partner organisations for purposes relating to education or training.

Consent to process

By signing below, I confirm that I agree to the College holding and processing personal and sensitive data contained in the form, or other data, which the College may obtain from me or others whilst I am a learner. I agree to the processing of such data for the purpose connected with my studies or my health and safety whilst on the premises or for any other legitimate reason. I agree to inform the College of any changes required to my data. I will comply with college regulations and pay tuition, registration/exam, college deposit and assessment fees (if appropriate).
